Generation 1

1. George KENDALL-1. He was born Bef. 10 Sep 1775 in Auckley, Finningley, Nottingham, England. Christening on 10 Sep 1775 in Auckley, Finningley, Nottingham, England. He died in Ontario, Canada.

Notes for George KENDALL:

General Notes:

George moved away from the family to Thorne, Yorkshire, possibly due to a job at a peat mine in the area. He continued to be listed as a wheelwright, later changed to cooper. Local historians indicate that this would have been a natural progression once he left the employ of the mine.

George and Elizabeth had 8 children. The two eldest, Ann (c. Sep 20, 1812) and Sarah (c. Dec 17, 1814) were married in Thorne. Ann to George WILKINSON on December 3, 1833 and Sarah to William STONES on January 19, 1836. The Stones carried on their lives in the Thorne area and the family line continues to live in Thorne (at 2005).

George (July 17, 1821), Enoch (May 23, 1823), Elijah (December 12, 1828) and Elizabeth (April 10, 1832), plus Ann and George Wilkinson, emigrated to Canada with George and Elizabeth sometime between 1836 and 1845, where they settled in Ontario.

The following is from the records of Dave Hill (son of Earl's sister Vivian)

"George served with the British army as a cavalry officer under Wellington at the Battle of Waterloo. Shortly thereafter he sailed for Canada and took a military land grant in the township of Reach in Ontario County, in the village of Utica near Port Perry. Not much is known about the land grant, but apparently George owned several properties and had different members of his family living on them." <Note that there is no record of George's service in any form. Wellington's and other military troops of the time are very well documented in the UK Archives in Kew, outside London.>

"After George's wife died, Dec 11 1857, the old man spent his time going from one of his children's homes to another, as the spirit moved him. One day he took his old dog and walked out to visit his daughter. Neither he nor his dog was ever seen again."

His disappearance remained a mystery until the turn of the century, when Mrs. Parkes (Elizabeth Kendall) told the rest of the family the story. She and her husband had been renting a parcel of land from her father, in the Village of Prince Albert. Parkes ran a small tavern on the property. One day when the old man signed what he thought was a rental agreement, he inadvertently signed a deed to the property which Parkes had substituted for the agreement. Some time later, on a summer morning, Parkes met the old man and his dog and killed them both. He dropped them down an abandoned well on the property and partly filled it in.

William Parkes had confessed this to his wife, for what reason I'm sure I don't know. Maybe his conscience drove him to tell her. I don't believe he was ever made to account for what he did. At least not in this life.

So much time had passed when the truth finally came out no one had any accurate information as to the exact location of the well. So, although there was talk of trying to find the old chap and giving him a proper burial, it was decided to let sleeping dogs lie. So to speak. Much of this information comes from Arvid Kendall's cousin, Donald Kendall, who has done much research on the Kendall and Stretton families.

George emigrated to Canada with his parents, George and Elizabeth, along with his brothers, Elijah and Enoch, and his sister, Elizabeth.

In October of 1854, George Jr. took a wagon load of grain into town and he apparently enjoyed a drink or two in the pub while he was there. On the way home he struck something with the wagon that threw him off the seat onto the road and the wagon wheel passed over his neck. He was found, still alive, and taken home where he died days later on November 1, 1854.

Some time later, George's brother Elijah married the widow Margaret. Margaret already had three children by George. Elijah and Margaret went on to have six more children together, Isabella, Margaret, Katherine, Robert, Zella and Edwin.

Generation 2 (con't)

General Notes:

It would seem that there was some kind of falling out within the family and in 1879 Elijah bought himself a farm in Hawkstone, a little town near Orillia. He moved his family and all their belongings to the new home. It is interesting to note that when they made the move they waited until the dead of winter and drove their team and wagon, and perhaps a sleigh, directly to Hawkstone across the frozen Lake Simcoe. I don't think I would like that trip at all. It would be about fifty miles as the crow flies, and almost half of that over the water of that treacherous lake. I think I would have taken the long way around.

The farm they settled is still in use and the house still stands. I visited there recently and it is a beautiful spot, owned for many years, of course by another family. There are a number of houses in Hawkstone, still lived in, that were owned at one time or another by one of the Kendalls, and some descendants still live there Margaret died in 1903 and Elijah in 1910. They were buried in the Kendall Cemetery in Utica. Son Robert died and was buried at Hawkstone but the other children are scattered.

The farm at Utica, (pt. lot 7, conc. 5, Reach Twp) is still in use and is still held by a Kendall, though the relationship is somewhat vague. It was left untitled and was to go to the eldest male descendent in perpetuity. On the corner of the old farm is the Kendall Cemetery where most of those who stayed are buried."

According to his gravestone, Elijah was born November 7, 1829, however his christening was recorded as December 12, 1828. The 1901 census shows his birthdate as November 28, 1828.

He was a contractor in Triumph and later became the rural mail carrier, a job which he held for 28 years.

Generation 3 (con't)

The following is from the records of Dave Hill (son of Earl's sister Vivian)

While still living in Hawkstone, Elijahs daughter Zella met and married Andrew Jones who was a Methodist minister. Andrew and Zella took leave of their families and Andrew became thetor of the old Methodist Church in Fairmont Minnesota, U.S.A. About 1890, Zellas brother Edwin followed to Fairmont to find a home with his sister and brother-in-law and make himself a new life in a new country.

In the town of Neenah Wisconsin, Martius Pope married Mary Smith and had five children. The youngest child was Kittie Alice, my grandmother. At the age of four, about 1871, she came with her family by covered wagon to establish what was to become the old Pope homestead just east of the town of Triumph Minnesota.

Mary Pope was a school teacher and Kittie, following in her mothers footsteps became one of the earliest teachers in what was to be called the old home district. Her father helped organize the Methodist church in Triumph in which Kittie was very active.

Triumph is not very far from Fairmont, and with all of them being Methodists and active in the church, Im sure it had to be through the church that Kittie met Ed Kendall.

Ed had become a contractor and when he and Kittie were married on Aug 18 1895, they built their own house in Triumph, which by the way, was still just as they left it the last time I was there.

Ed had much to do with building the town of Triumph. Later on he became the rural mail carrier, a job he held for twenty-eight years.

What would Minnesota have been like when Ed Kendall arrived there, or when Kitty arrived some twenty years before him? Well, if the reader is old enough to remember the old television series Little House on the Prairies, you will have some idea. That series was taken from the stories of Laura Ingels, who wrote about her familys life and times in the wilds of unsettled Minnesota. The early episodes dealt with getting along with the Indians and went through the building of a town called Walnut Grove. These stories were mostly true and the towns mentioned in the series, Walnut Grove, Sleepy-Eye and New Ulm are all just down the road from Triumph. The time frame for the series would have been just about the time when Kittie and her family arrived.

Kittie Alice POPE is the daughter of Martius Lucious POPE and Mary Catherine SMITH. She was born on 05 May 1867 in Neenah, Winnebago, WI, USA. Residence 1910 in Triumph, Martin, Minnesota. She died on 18 Feb 1951 in Sherburn, MN, USA. Burial on 21 Feb 1951 in Elm Creek Cemetary, Triumph, MN.

Notes for Kittie Alice POPE:

General Notes:

On both Earl's birth certificate and on the 1900 census, she is called Katie. (Nickname or spelling?)

From the Triumph newspaper...

"Mrs. Kittie Kendall passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Kuntz, in Sherburn, Sunday evening, February 18 at 8:10 pm. She has been in frail health for several years and came to live with her daughter after her husband's death in 1949.

Kittie Alice (Pope) Kendall was born May 5, 1867 in Neenah Wisconsin, the youngest of five children born to Martius and Mary Pope. She came by covered wagon at the age of four, to the old Pope Homestead two miles east of Triumph.

Kittie Pope was one of the earliest school teachers in the old homedistrict, following in her mother's footsteps. Her school record is now the property of the Martin County Historical Society. She was very active from girlhood on in the old Methodist Church at Triumph, which her father helped organize, being organist and also singing in the choir.

She was married August 18, 1895 to Edwin S. Kendall, who had arrived from Canada at the age of twenty, to make his home with his broth-in-law and sister, the Rev and Mrs. T.A.Jones, who was then pastor of the old Methodist Church of Fairmont, Minn.

They built their own home and settled in Triumph in the year 1901, and did much to help build and settle Triumph, he being first contractor, and then rural letter carrier, serving the government for twenty-eight years, and she acting as his substitute for many years.

Mrs. Kendall was preceded in death by one daughter Sylva, who died in the flu epidemic in October of 1918, and by her husband, Edwin, who passed away November 10, 1949.

She leaves to mourn, two sons and two daughters, Earl of Toronto, Canada: Harold of Eureka, California: Mrs. Roy Kuntz (Ferne) of Sherburn, and Mrs. Jack Bailey (Vivian) of Toronto, Canada. Also seven grandchildren.

All of her brothers and sisters preceding her in death, she is the last of a pioneer family.

Notes for Earl Glen KENDALL:

General Notes:

From the Triumph-Monterey Progress Thursday, September 12, 1929...

"KENDALL-GROSHENS

A surprise wedding was solemnized at the Sherburn Gospel Tabernacle Sunday, Sept. 8th at high noon when Earl G. Kendall of this village was united in marriage with Olive L. Groshens of Sherburn, both prominent young people of the Tabernacle.

Immediately after the closing prayer of the morning services, Mrs. Eva Uplinger started playing the wedding march to which strains the attendants, Vivian Kendall, sister of the groom, and Delbert Groshens, brother of the bride, marched slowly up the aisle, followed by the bride and groom.. Rev. Dexter E. Collins, pastor of the Tabernacle, performed the circle ring ceremony, by which he united the young couple in marriage.

The bride wore an orchid georgette gown with a rose spray on the shoulder, while her attendant wore an orchid silk crepe dress. The groom wore a suit of conventional blue and his attendant wore a suit of brown.

The church was beautifully decorated in ferns and astors.

Before the benediction was pronounced, the young couple marched out and disappeared before friends could congratulate them, leaving for an auto trip to the northern part of the state.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kendall of this village. He grew to young manhood here and attended the local schools. For the past eight years he has been employed with the Fairmont Railway Motors at Fairmont. The bride came to this vicinity from Iowa about three years ago with her parents and lived for a time on the Triumph Stock Farm, later moving to Sherburn where she had since made her home. During her stay at Sherburn she has won a large circle of friends by her pleasing personality.

They will be at home to their friends at 414 North Orient Street, Fairmont, after October first."
